LEGION AUXILIARY NEWS:

The Aviston American Legion Auxiliary will be hosting our 2nd Annual "Girls Day Out" show on Sunday Nov. 15th at the Aviston American Legion Hall from 11am – 3pm. We will have four speakers/presenters headlining the show. Clinton County Deputy Sgt. Mike Dall will speak on Women's Safety; Don Rodgers Clothier will present a fashion show, featuring local models; Jackman's Fabrics will have the latest in window treatments; and Ahner's Florists will display holiday arrangements. Forty vendors will be there, which include Olde World Jewelers, who will be buying gold; Miche purses, Dillard's, ornate sweatshirts, a chiropractor, travel, St. Joseph's Hospital, etc. Tickets will be on sale at several local businesses after November 1st. Ticket cost is $15; advance tickets will receive a $5 coupon at the door, which is good at any vendor. All tickets include lunch and wine.

We are also asking Auxiliary members (and anyone who likes to bake) to bring cookies to the Legion on Friday Nov. 13th during the fish fry. These will be served with the lunch. Also, baked goods will be needed for the bake sale the day of the event. All help is appreciated. All proceeds will be used for further improvement at the Legion. Any questions, call 228-7374 or 228-7416.

K of C NEWS:

Sunday Nov. 29th the Aviston Knights of Columbus are having their Fall All You Can Eat Breakfast at the Aviston American Legion from 7:30am – 11:30am. Prices are $6.50 for adults,

$3.00 for children, 6 and under free. The menu includes pork sausage, pancakes, hash rounds, scrambled eggs, biscuits and gravy, fruit cocktail and drinks. Carry-outs are available.

A portion of the proceeds goes to help the community organizations such as Sunday School Program, Vacation Bible School, Boy Scouts, Youth football, softball and baseball, swim lessons, PSR program, etc.

There are three kids from our Council that are going to the Knights of Columbus State Soccer Challenge competition in Charleston on November 21st. These kids had to win at three levels to qualify for the State competition. Each had won at the Council level, the District level, and the Regional level. They are Alexis Voyles, Brandon Reeves, and Leann Huegen

PTCC NEWS:

The Aviston PTCC is starting a new fundraiser called the Scrip Program. The PTCC will earn money from the gift cards you purchase to provide items needed for the classrooms and playground at the school. The gift cards are for hundreds of places such as retail stores, gas cards, restaurants, etc. For more information about the program or to get an order form, please check out the Village website at www.avistonil.org or stop by the Village Hall.

The first order date is Friday Nov. 13th. The first delivery date will be Thursday Nov. 19th at the school. Other arrangements can be made with Carol Rapp for delivery. The second order date is scheduled for Friday Dec. 11th with a delivery date of Thursday Dec. 17th. For questions or comments regarding this program, please contact Carol Rapp at carolrapp@charter.net or call 228-7451.

VILLAGE NEWS:

Just a reminder to everyone, we do have a NO BURNING ORDINANCE. There is to be no burning in the Village of Aviston. If you rake your leaves, please take them to the dump area located east of the soccer field.
